SAVOY

The King of Sardinia is ſaid, upon his Retreat out of Savoy, to have written to the King of Great-Britain the following Letter.

Sir, my Brother,

YOU have already been acquainted by my Miniſter at your Court, with the Reaſons, which obliged me to withdraw my Army from Savoy, and to cauſe it to return into Piedmont. Your Majeſty ought to have been inform'd at the ſame Time, that I did not take this Step till I was reduced to the laſt Extremity, and till after it was impoſſible for me to ſupport myſelf againſt an Enemy greatly ſuperior to me in Strength. Thoſe Perſons, who are deſirous of rendering ſuſpicious the moſt faithful Exactneſs in fulfilling Engagements, will not fail of endeavouring to cauſe this Retreat to be attributed to other Motives than thoſe which are actually the true ones. Evil minded People will not fail too, according to their accuſtom'd Manner, of uſing their utmoſt Artifices, in order to give a Face of Truth to their Interpretations, which are as falſe as they are malicious, and this they do by inſinuating that Propoſitions have actually been made to me; but I expect from the Penetration of your Majeſty, that you will readily diſcern the Truth, and will not ſuffer yourſelf to be impoſed upon by theſe illuſive Inſinuations; but will be more than ever be perſuaded of my unſhaken Fidelity to the Engagements which I have entered into, not only with your Majeſty, but likewiſe with the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, for the mutual Defence of our Dominions in Italy. I alſo flatter myſelf that your Majeſty, by your Miniſters reſiding at the Court of that Princeſs, will at a proper Time uſe your utmoſt Endeavours to cauſe to be performed the particular Engagements, which are underſtood and couched in thoſe, which induced me to take up Arms, and was the Occaſion of our Troops joining. I pray God, my good Brother, to have you conſtantly under his heavenly Protection.

Your good Brother and Ally

Dated from Turin Charles Emmanuel.

Yet notwithſtanding theſe ſtrong Proteſtations, it is affirmed, whether juſtly or not, that the King would have quitted the Alliance, had not ſome ſecret Demands, been granted by the Queen of Hungary.

The Sardinian Army is ſaid to conſiſt of 45, 000 Men, who expect a Re-inforcement of 12,000 Swiſs in Britiſh Pay, and ſome Troops from Traun. The Spaniſh Forces are computed at 22,000, who likewiſe expect to be joined by ten Battallions. It does not appear why the Sardinians ſhould wait for Aſſiſtance, in order to reſcue their own Country from the Ravages of an Army, not half ſo numerous as their own.

ITALY.

The Spaniſh Army has retreated into the Pope's Dominions, where they ſeem to meet with that Coldneſs, which Diſtreſs commonly experiences. The Pope has however ordered that they ſhall be furniſhed with Proviſions, leſt they ſhould, as they have already done in ſome Places, take it by Force. The Numbers reported to have deſerted is ſcarce credible, 125 Officers and 2000 Soldiers having left them in their March from Bologna. Count de Gages being obliged to leave behind him a great Number of ſick and wounded Men, recommended them in a Letter to the Auſtrian General, who promiſed to treat them like his own Troops. He is very far from obſerving the ſame Moderation towards the Subjects of the Eccleſiaſtical State, which he treats as an Enemy's Country, nor can he be prevailed upon to remit the Severity of his Demands by any Remonſtrances, but continues daily to raiſe Contributions, and exact Supplies.

The Spaniſh Forces are ſaid to be reduced to about 7000 Men, who have with them 12 Pieces of Cannon, 30 Waggons and 282 Mules laden with Powder.

GENOA

It is ſaid, That King Theodore amuſes himſelf at preſent near Florence at a little Seat, where according to his own Declaration, he propoſes to reſide, till the Arrival of three Ships, which will enable him once more to viſit Corſica, but his Inactivity may be imputed to the manifeſt Deceenſion of the Ardour, with which he was received by his Corſicans, who though they have declared themſelves not natural, but only conditional Subjects, of the Genoeſe, and by Conſequence ſtill ſupport their Independency, are yet willing to return to their Allegiance to the Republick, upon certain Conditions, among which is the Uſe of Fire Arms.

NAPLES

The King of the Two Sicilies has been warmly ſollicited from Madrid, to aid the Count de Gages with his Forces, but has anſwered, that he does not ſee how any Aſſiſtance which he can be expected to give, will enable the Spaniards to oppoſe Count Traun, whoſe Army is every Day encreaſing, and who will probably, before he can be attacked, have 30,000 Men under his Command, that the Engliſh Fleet will upon ſuch an Act of Hoſtility fall upon his Coaſts, or bombard his Capital, and that his Troops while that Danger is impending are neceſſary for the Security of his own Dominions. This Conduct is ſaid to have ſo much offended the Queen of Spain, that ſhe has threatened to degrade him from the Dignity to which ſhe only has raiſed him.

FLORENCE

The Electreſs Dowager Palatine has left by her Will two Strings of Oriential Pearl, worth 60,000 Crowns, to Prince Octavio de Medici, and 100 000 Crowns in Money, beſides ſome rich Effects to Seignior Nicolo de Medici. She has left a Jewel, worth 100,000 Crowns, to the King of Spain, and another of like Value to the King of the Two Sicilies. All the Silver Plate mark'd with the Arms of the Family, and a certain Quantity of Jewels, amounting in the whole to above 200,000 Crowns, to the Elector Palatine.

SWITZERLAND.

The Inhabitants of the Cantons are ſo enraged at the Conduct of the Spaniards, as hardly to reſtrain themſelves from inſulting their Miniſters. They ſtill continue in their Reſolution of oppoſing them, if they ſhould attempt a Paſſage through the Valaiſe, and have ſent thither a very numerous Detachment for that Purpoſe.

PRUSSIA.

It is ſaid that the King of Pruſſia, who ſeems not inclined to forget any of his Pretenſions, has made a Demand of Nine Millions of Florins upon the Biſhoprick of Warmia, which has from Time immemorial belonged to the Republick of Poland. If in Reality, his Majeſty deſigns to favour the Auſtrians, he may make uſe of this Claim to reſtrain in ſome Degree the King of Poland from engaging in French Meaſures.

HOLLAND.

The Slowneſs of the Dutch Counſels ſtill continues to hold Europe in Suſpence, though nothing has been omitted that might quicken their Reſolutions. The Earl of

Stair

State has shewn the Necessity of the immediate March of the 40,000 Men who have been so long expected, and for which it is now too late to offer an Equivalent in Money, because there is not Time left for employing it in raising Levies. Mr. Trevor in Order to induce them to comply with the Propositions of Great Britain, has declared that his Court will assist them in sending a Squadron into the Baltic. But neither Remonstrances nor Promises have yet had any Effect. Perhaps they are deterred by the exaggerated Representations, that M. Van Hoey, their Ambassador, is said to have made of the Power of France, of which he reports the Troops to amount to 400,000 Men, and the circulating Coin to be 1300 Millions of Livres, and asserts that the King can by the sale of Lands, from which he now receives little Advantage, raise 300 Millions of Livres without laying any Burthen on his Subjects; after this he concludes, that whoever is inclined to contend with this Nation, ought to consider these Accounts and remember that there will be no Medium between Victory and Ruin.

It is observed of this Relation, that tho' by enumerating only Names of the Regiments, the French may be made to appear thus formidable, yet the Terror will be dissipated upon a nearer Inspection, which will discover some of the Regiments to be empty Names, and all of them except the Household Troops defective. And though, with Regard to the Money, he cites the Records of the Mint, and urges, that the Value of Money being greater in France than out of it, very little is exported, it is plain there are some, and may be Fallacies in his Account. Large Sums have been remitted to almost every Part of Europe the French having of late made War chiefly with Money. It very little becomes a Politician to alledge that the Value of Money is, or can be greater where it is much, than where there is little. Money may be called indeed by what Denomination a Government shall think proper, but the real Price of Money, as of any thing else, will always be diminished by its Plenty.

ENGLAND.

London, April 19. We hear that on the clearing the St. Peter & Joseph Prize, lately taken by the Squirrel Man of War, a Cask of Dollars was found conceal'd, as likewise all the Ship's Papers, by which they have discover'd where several Caskets of Jewels were conceal'd in the Ballast.

His Catholick Majesty has declared his serene Highness the Duke of Modena, General of his Forces in Italy.

Count d'Ossein is elected Archbishop and Elector of Mentz in spite of all the Endeavours of the opposite Party.

April 22. Yesterday his Majesty went to the House of Peers, with the usual Solemnity, and put an End to the Sessions of Parliament, with a most gracious Speech from the Throne, which is as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Zeal, Prudence, and Dispatch, with which you have carried on the publick Business, during the Course of this Session, give me the greatest Satisfaction.

That the Nation and the common Cause, may reap the most beneficial Fruits of your vigorous Resolutions, I have, at the Requisition of the Queen of Hungary, ordered my Army, in Conjunction with the Austrian Troops, to pass the Rhine, as Auxiliaries to her Hungarian Majesty, for her Support and Assistance; and to oppose any dangerous Measures, that might affect the Ballance and Liberties of Europe, or hinder the Re establishment of the Publick Tranquility, upon just and solid Foundations. I have continued a strong Squadron in the Mediterranean, and another in the West Indies, in order to carry on the great Work of distressing our Enemies, the Spaniards, and reducing them to safe and honourable Terms of Peace; as well as of maintaining the Rights of Navigation and Commerce belonging to my Subjects: And from the former of these Squadrons, my Allies in Italy have found, and still continue to receive a most useful and advantageous Support.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I return you my Thanks for the ample Supplies, which you have granted for the Service of the current Year, and which, you may be assured, shall be applied to those great Ends for which they were given.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have a firm Confidence in your good Affections; and it is the fix'd Purpose of my Heart, to promote the true Interest and Happiness of my Kingdoms. In Return for this, I expect, on your part, that you will exert your best Endeavours, in your respective Stations, to render my Government easy, and to preserve the Peace and Quiet of the Nation.

April 26. Private Letters from Berlin assure, that his Prussian Majesty had set out from thence, attended only by his Brother and two General Officers, for the City of Prague, in order to have an Interview with the Queen of Hungary.

April 27. Between 4 and 5 o'Clock in the Morning his Majesty and the Duke of Cumberland set out from St. James's for Gravesend, where they embark'd for Holland.

The Regency appointed to transact the Business of this Kingdom, during his Majesty's Absence, are as follows.

Archbp. of Canterbury	Marquis of Tweedale
Lord Chancellor	Duke of Montague
Duke of Grafton	Duke of Richmond
Duke of Dorset	Earl of Pembroke
Duke of Devonshire	Earl of Winchelsea
Duke of Newcastle	Earl of Ilay
Duke of Bolton	Lord Gower,
Earl of Harrington	Lord Carteret,
Earl of Bath	Henry Pelham, Esq;
Earl of Wilmington

April 28. From Hamburgh we learn, by Letters of the 1st of April, that a Body of 24,000 Russian Troops had begun their March from Livonia towards Germany.

The two Brothers, Orchard, from London for North-Carolina, was taken by a Spanish Privateer, called the St. Pedro, Capt. Baptista, of 14 Guns, the 17th Instant, but ransomed herself, and is returned to Plymouth.

M. de Campillo, Prime Minister of Spain, died at Madrid on the 11th Instant.

April 30. The Ann Sloop, Capt. Turner, from Bristol for Oporto, is taken by a Spanish Privateer off Vigo, and carried into that Port.

May 3. The following is an exact List of the Queen of Hungary's Forces.

57 Regiments of Infantry	-	134700 Men
18 of Cuirassiers	- - - -	19692
14 of Dragoons	- - - - -	15316
11 of Hussars	- - - - -	11000
100 Regiments		180708 Men.

CHARLES-TOWN, August 29.

Last Tuesday arrived here the Hawk Privateer Brigantine, Capt. Edward Fennell, from whom we have the following Account; That on the 26th of July, lying at Anchor between Rocky-Key and Point Hicacus, in the Old Streights of Bahama, at Sun rising, he saw Four Sail, coming down before the Wind; his Boats being then on shore watering, he made a Signal and they immediately return'd on board; he then weigh'd and stood off towards those Vessels, about 8 o'Clock A M. he got within Gun shot of a large French Ship mounting 20 Guns, which directly gave him three Broadsides as fast as they could fire; Capt. Fennell return'd each Broadside with three Whirra's without firing one Gun, his Intention being to attack their Convoy, (a Privateer Sloop of 12 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, and 110 Men) which was then in between the two Ships, i e. the French Ship, and a Spanish Ship of 16 Guns, in order to clap their Men on board and assist the Ship he should attempt to board; at half an Hour past 8 A M. Capt. Fennell began to fire at the Sloop, in Hopes of drawing her out from between the Ships and clap her on board, but the Sloop would not leave them, he thereupon fired on the Ships as fast he cou'd load, for the space of three Hours, in order to separate them, but they continued close together crowding all the Sail they cou'd for the Bay of Matanzas; the Spanish Ship being the off Sail or Northermost, he bore up in order to lay her aboard, but the French Ship observing his Motion, run directly in between them, and with the Spaniard ply'd him very warmly with their Stern Chase Guns, the Sloop also, dropt a-stern and gave Capt. Fennell

Fennell her Broadſides, upon the Return of which, ſhe re-man'd immediately between the Ships again, where they continued Yard-Arm and Yard-Arm, which ſuperior Force rendering impracticable any Attempts that could be made to board, and as they drew near the Metanzes, and none could be drawn out from the Reſt, he quitted them. He received no Damage, their ſhot moſtly going over and between his Maſts. Soon after ſtretching off the Land he ſaw a Sloop coming down along the ſhore, which he immediately gave Chaſe to and came up with, ſhe proved to be Capt. Lightwood for the Havanna, (ſent by this Government for an Exchange of Priſoners) who had on board the Spaniſh Captains taken by Capt. Fennell laſt Feb. in the Bay of Mexico, which prevented his proceeding that Way.

N B. If the Eagle Sloop had not left me, either by Deſign or through Ignorance of the Navigation they were then in, I ſay, had they been with me when I met the aforeſaid ſhips, I ſhould have been enabled to have taken one or both of them, only for to have attacked and kept the Sloop in Action whilſt I boarded one or other of the Ships, the French Ship having but 60 Men, and the Spaniſh 50, both rich Ships, as per Advice from Cape Francois; the other was a Snow from Spain, with Stores for their Navy, which fired but two Shot at me and run a head of the reſt Edward Fennell.

We hear that Capt. Daymond, who arrived here on the 21ſt Inſt. has brought over ſeveral Cannon (ſix 18-Pounders, and the others 9-Pounders) which his Majeſty has been pleaſed to order for the Uſe of this Province.

On Thurſday laſt Mr. Stephen Bedon, jun. was married to Miſs Ruth Nicholls, an agreeable young Lady, with a large Fortune. And,

We hear that Colonel John Gibbes was married the ſame Day, in the Country, to Mrs. Elizabeth Jenys of this Town, Reliſt of Paul Jenys, Eſq; with a very large Fortune.
